

WI DNR Requires Certificate to Rent or Lease a Watercraft on a Temporary basis

WI Approved BOAT RENTAL COURSE is for Wisconsin residents and visitors who do not already possess a valid boating education certificate, but who wish to rent a boat or PWC to operate on Wisconsin waters. Upon completing the course you will be issued a temporary boating certificate, allowing you to legally rent a boat or PWC anywhere in Wisconsin.

Temporary Boating Certificate Requirements:

- Must be 16 years of age or older.
- Renting or leasing a motorboat or personal watercraft from a licensed watercraft rental agent
- The certificate is valid until the end of the calendar year in which it is issued.
- Can only be used by the person to whom it was issued.
- Can only be used to operate a motorboat or personal watercraft which is rented or leased by the holder of the certificate.

The course covers all the information you'll need to know to receive your temporary boating certificate. The entire course can be taken on a smartphone, tablet or computer. Using interactive animations, realistic illustrations and video, the course covers Wisconsin legal requirements, navigation rules, safe personal watercraft operation, casting off, docking, etc.
